Re: Social Committee Annual Report 2007

Dear Jessica:

Please allow this letter to serve as my annual report as chairman of the Social Committee.

We kicked off 2007 with our annual dinner at DiSalvo's. Ken Horoho, former Pennsylvania Bar Association President, was our guest speaker. Brian Bluth won the Equal Access to Justice Award and we also welcomed John Pietrovito as our new president.

As usual, the annual picnic was held on the 3rd Wednesday in July preceded by the annual golf tournament. This year our golf tournament merged with the Kiwanis gold tournament, as several Law Association members also wanted to play in that tournament to support that cause. In the afternoon people gathered at Gray's Run for refreshments, entertainment and good food. The picnic was well attended and featured a triathlon of events between five members of the Elion Wayne Law Firm and five members from the Rieders Travis Law Firm. The triathlon consisted of volleyball, horseshoes and setback. The losing firm agreed to donate $100.00 to a Law Foundation for each event that they lost. Rieders Travis lost the volleyball tournament, while the Elion Wayne team lost on horseshoes as well as setback. It is hoped that in 2008 other law firms also participate in this triathlon and/or challenge any other law firm to an event of their choice. Personally, I still cannot believe that we lost to Elion Wayne in volleyball and therefore would like to challenge them to a rematch this summer.

Later that year, the Elion Wayne Law Firm also hosted a social in order to promote participation in the Inns of Court program. I would welcome any other law firm to sponsor a social event this year or otherwise provide any ideas concerning social events.

LLA also held its annual baseball game social event this year, but with a twist. Instead of holding one game, we interacted with the State College Bar Association and held two events: one here in Williamsport against the State College Spikes, where we hosted members of the State College Bar as our guests, and another at the State College ballfield with the Crosscutters as the away team, and we were the guests of the State College Bar. Both events were a success. It was roundly felt we should do the same thing again in 2008.

If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Waffenschmidt, Esquire
