

Corrected

2017 PROBONO REPORT

In 2017, 95 attorneys handled 235 Lycoming County pro bono cases for the Williamsport Office of North Penn Legal Services. Protection from Abuse matters continue to be the largest case type at 172 cases. The remaining 61 cases comprised of the Mortgage Diversion Program, private Landlord-tenant matters, debt collection, advanced Powers of Attorney and Adult Guardianship, and unemployment compensation cases.

North Penn Legal Services handled 24 custody clinics during the year of 2017. However, this year the custody clinics were done entirely by North Penn staff. Work on expungement/pardon clinics is now completed and a clinic is scheduled for January 18, 2018.

NPLS had 2 retired attorneys working in its office, each one day a week on a regular basis.

Attorneys continue to generously donate arbitration fees to the Law Foundation in support of North Penn Legal Services.

Attorneys continue to receive access to online CLE courses available at no charge to the pro bono attorney by the PA Bar Association.