A REVIEW OF STATUTORY PUBLICATION REQUIREMENTS

PERTINENT DEFINITIONS

Legal Newspaper

“A newspaper which is a ‘legal periodical,’ ‘official legal newspaper,’ or ‘official legal periodical,’ publishing legal intelligence, as designated by general rule or rule of court for the publication of legal advertisements and notices required by law, rule, order, or decree of court, to be published in a legal newspaper, legal periodical, official legal newspaper, or official legal periodical, so designated by general rule or rule of court.”¹

Newspaper of General Circulation

“A newspaper issued daily, or not less than once a week, intended for general distribution and circulation, and sold at fixed prices per copy per week, per month, or per annum, to subscribers and readers without regard to business, trade, profession or class.”²

Officially Publish

“Publish in two newspapers of general circulation in the English language in the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located, or in the case of a proposed corporation is to be located, one of which shall be the legal newspaper, if any, designated by the rules of court for the publication of legal notices or, if there is no legal newspaper, in two newspapers of general circulation in the county. When there is but one newspaper of general circulation in any county, advertisement in that newspaper shall be sufficient. Where no other frequency is specified, the notice shall be published one time in the appropriate newspaper or newspapers....”³

Successive Weeks

“Whenever in any rule providing for the publishing of notices, the phrase ‘successive weeks’ is used, weeks shall be construed as calendar weeks. The publication upon any day of such weeks shall be sufficient publication for that week, but at least five days shall elapse between each publication. At least the number of weeks specified in ‘successive weeks’ shall elapse between the first publication and the day for the happening of the event for which publication shall be made.”⁴
