

LYCOMING COUNTY
EMERGENCY OR SPECIAL CUSTODY RELIEF
SELF-HELP KIT

REMEMBER
The law often changes. Each case is different. This self-help kit is meant to give you general information and not give you specific legal advice.

INTRODUCTION

The instructions and forms in this packet will help you file the paperwork to request the Court grant you emergency custody.

Emergency custody will only be granted to protect a child “from an immediate clear and present danger.” Examples of clear and present danger are things like physical abuse of a child, and severe neglect of a child, such as the failure to provide food, shelter, or medical care.

You should only file this Petition for Emergency or Special Custody Relief if a child is actually in a dangerous situation and something needs to be done immediately to prevent that situation from continuing or to stop a situation from beginning. Concerns that the child(ren) would be better off if the custody arrangement were changed or that the child(ren) may be harmed in the long run by the current custody agreement are NOT appropriate issues to file for emergency relief. Those issues should be handled through the regular scheduling of custody matters. You may file a Complaint for Custody if there is no custody Order, or a Petition for Modification if an Order is already in place.

If you file for Emergency Custody and the situation is not a true emergency, your petition will ultimately be denied, and you will have wasted your time and created bad feelings with the other party.

If you just need to get into court fast, file the Complaint or Petition for Modification and ask for it to be “expedited.”

Note: If you are NOT A PARENT of the child(ren), you will need the self-help kit called “Standing: Who Can File for Custody?” You should include the form from that kit called “I Have Standing Because” with your Emergency Custody Petition.

Warning: The emergency custody process takes time! When you file an emergency custody petition, several employees at the Courthouse will be required to interrupt their regular work to give attention to your petition. If a Judge and/or Hearing Officer is already in a court procedure, you will have to wait until they are finished. Don't expect immediate action. Be prepared to wait at the courthouse.

THE EMERGENCY CUSTODY PROCESS

There are six steps in the emergency custody process. This packet provides the forms you need and guides you through these steps.

Step One: Read the instructions in this packet.

Step Two: Fill out the forms in this packet, and make copies.

Step Three: File the forms and copies at the Prothonotary's Office.

Step Four: An employee at the Prothonotary's Office will take your paperwork to a Judge to review.

After this, either of the following two outcomes may happen:

Outcome One: If the Judge does not believe your case qualifies as an emergency, the Judge will dismiss your petition, and your petition will go no further. You may still go forward on your Complaint for Custody, if you filed one, or you may file a Petition for Modification if you have an existing custody order. Packets are available from the Law Library in the basement of the Courthouse; online at www.lyco.org under the "Courts/Law Library/Forms" tabs; or from North Penn Legal Services, Penn Tower, 25 West Third St., Suite 400, Williamsport PA 17701.

Outcome Two: If the Judge believes your case may qualify as an emergency, the judge will send the case to Family Court. You will then have a hearing in front of a Family Court Hearing Officer. If the Hearing Officer finds that your case qualifies as an emergency, the Hearing Officer will issue an order granting you emergency custody. This will be a temporary order only! Go on to Steps Five and Six.

Step Five: Serve the other party. Your emergency custody order will have a date for a hearing, which will be held within ten business days. You must immediately serve the other party, because he/she has a right to be at the hearing and defend him/herself against your allegations.

Step Six: Attend the hearing, and try to prove to the Judge that the child(ren) is/are in immediate clear and present danger from the other party. The Judge will announce his/her decision after the hearing.

EMERGENCY CUSTODY

PART ONE: INSTRUCTIONS

These are the instructions for filling out the forms. The forms are found in Part Two of this packet. You may want to separate the forms from the instructions now, so you can read the instructions for each form as you fill out that form.

1. FIRST FORM: ORDER

- If you DO NOT have an existing custody order, complete the caption (heading) by printing your name as the Plaintiff and the other party's name as the Defendant. Use middle initials and print neatly. Note: If grandparents or other third parties have physical custody, there will be more than one Defendant, as both parents must always be parties.

Fill in the caption only—leave the rest of the page blank

- If you ALREADY HAVE a custody order and wish to change that order, USE THE SAME CAPTION AS IN THE PREVIOUS ORDER. Your caption will never change. The same person who is listed as the Plaintiff in your Custody Order must be the Plaintiff in this action. The same person listed as Defendant in your Custody Order must be the Defendant in this action. You should also use the same case number that appears on your Custody Order

Fill in the caption only—leave the rest of the page blank

2. SECOND FORM: ORDER FOR SPECIAL CUSTODY RELIEF AND HEARING – Complete the caption at the top of the page exactly like the caption on the first form. Leave the rest of this page blank.

3. THIRD FORM: ENTRY OF APPEARANCE AS SELF-REPRESENTED PARTY –Complete the caption at the top of the page exactly like the caption on the first form. Fill out the blanks in the form, and write the information requested. Skip paragraph 4 if you never had an attorney.

4. FOURTH FORM: PETITION FOR EMERGENCY OR SPECIAL CUSTODY RELIEF
Complete the caption at the top of the page exactly like the caption on the first form.

In the first blank line after the caption, above the words “filing party,” print your name since you are the person asking the Court to enter an emergency custody Order.

In paragraph 1, print your name. Circle whether or not you are listed as the Plaintiff or Defendant in the caption. Print your address and your telephone number on the lines provided.

In paragraph 2, print the name of the other party. Circle whether or not the other party is Plaintiff or Defendant in the original caption. Print the other party's address and telephone number on the lines provided.

In paragraph 3, print the child(ren)'s INITIALS AND AGES ONLY. Do NOT write names or dates of birth, as that is confidential information, not available to the public.

In paragraph 4, print the name of the child(ren)'s mother and the mother's address.

In paragraph 5, print the name of the child(ren)'s father and the father's address.

In paragraph 6, print the relationship between you and the child(ren). For example, if you are the mother, write mother; if you are the father, write father; if you are the paternal grandmother, write paternal grandmother.

In paragraph 7, print the name of any other person who might have custody of the child(ren) who is not the mother or the father. For example, if a relative such as a grandmother or an aunt has custody of the child, write their name on this line.

In paragraph 8, check the paragraph that fits your situation. If there is an existing custody order, check the first paragraph marked (A) and YOU MUST ATTACH A COPY OF THE MOST RECENT ORDER to these papers. Then, in the blank under paragraph (A) print why you believe the child(ren) is/are in clear and present danger and why the current custody Order should be immediately changed. Tell the Court what you think will happen if the Order is not changed and explain the reasons for such thinking. Remember, do not write name(s) of the child(ren)—only their initials.

If there is no prior custody Order, then check the second paragraph marked (B). On the blank lines of paragraph (B), print why you believe the child(ren) is/are in immediate clear and present danger, and why the Court should enter the custody Order immediately. Tell the Court what you think will happen if it does not enter a custody Order immediately and explain the reasons for such thinking. Remember, do not write the name(s) of the child(ren)—only their initials.

If there is no custody Order, you must file a Custody Complaint when you file this Petition for Emergency or Special Custody Relief. You need to get and complete a Custody Complaint Self-Help Kit from the same place you got the Emergency Custody packet.

In the last paragraph, which starts with the word "WHEREFORE," print exactly what you want the Court to do. Sign the Petition and print your name.

In the section "I verify," read that paragraph and sign your name, print your name, and write the date. You are verifying that all the statements you made are true and correct.

5. FIFTH FORM: COMPLETED CRIMINAL/ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION

Complete the caption as on previous forms. Write your name on the first line of the first paragraph, after the word "I." Check any boxes that are appropriate and fill out the required information. Sign, print, and date the final page.

6. SIXTH FORM: BLANK CRIMINAL/ABUSE HISTORY VERIFICATION

Complete the caption as on previous forms. Leave the rest of the form blank. This is for the other party to fill out and file after you serve it on them.

7. SEVENTH FORM: CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION FORM

This form is three pages long. This is the ONLY PLACE you list the names and birthdates of the children. This form will not be seen by the public.

Fill out the caption like you have done in the other documents. On the line that says “Court,” write “Lycoming County.”

On the third line, write “Emergency Custody Petition” where it asks for the title of the pleading, and write the date you are filing the petition.

For the rest of the first page, you only need to fill out the first column. You do not need to write anything for “full name of adult.” Just list each child’s initials, name, and date of birth separately, with the dotted line dividing each child’s information. If there are more than two children, use the additional page.

After you have listed each child, sign the form that states, “I certify that this filing complies ...” Write the date and print the additional information requested under your signature. This means that you promise you have not put the children’s names or birthdates on the forms available to the public.

8. EIGHTH FORM: A COPY OF THE CURRENT CUSTODY ORDER: If there is a current custody order, you MUST attach a copy of the order to this petition. You may get a copy of the order at the Prothonotary’s office at the Courthouse. You will be charged $.50 per page.

9. AND 10. NINTH AND TENTH FORMS – FORMS TO WAIVE THE FILING FEE

In order to file an Emergency Custody Petition, there is a fee that must be paid to the Prothonotary. This fee changes from time to time. If you already have a custody order, the fee will be $25.75 as of January 1, 2018.

If you do not already have a custody order, you will need to file a Complaint for Custody, as explained above, in addition to your Emergency Custody Petition. The total fee you will need to pay for filing both of these petitions is $155.00, as of January 1, 2018.

If you don’t think you can pay the filing fee, you may ask the Court to waive the cost. You will need to fill out and file two forms, in addition to the documents above. If you can afford to pay the filing fee, you will have to do so. The Court waives this cost only in cases where income is extremely low.

NINTH FORM – ORDER TO PROCEED WITHOUT PAYMENT OF FEES AND COSTS

Fill in the caption as on the other documents. There is nothing more for you to fill out on this document. If the Court grants the Petition, your custody action can proceed. If not, you will be notified and you will have to pay the costs in order to continue.

TENTH FORM – PETITION TO PROCEED WITHOUT PAYMENT OF FEES AND COSTS

Fill out the caption as on the other documents. The rest of the form is quite clear. You are asked to fill in facts about your personal finances. Be sure to include income from all sources, including government benefits like Public Assistance, unemployment compensation, and food stamps. Don't forget money your spouse receives, if you are married; from your parents if they help you; from friends or other family members; or from an Order for child support. Finally, identify all persons who depend on your income for support, including children who live with you. Do not list the children's names—only their initials and age.

Sections 4 and 5 of this Petition are important. Be sure that you read these paragraphs. They require you to inform the Court of any improvement in your financial situation which might permit you to pay some or all of the costs at a later date. When you date and sign the Petition after paragraph 5, you are promising that the information you have filled in is true. There will be consequences if you make false statements.

You have now completed the forms necessary to request the Court to allow you to proceed without paying the costs.

COPIES

After you have completed forms one through eight, clip them together in the order they are in the packet. You will then need to get copies made. You need a copy for yourself, one for the other party, and one for each additional party, if there are any. The original will stay at court, in the Prothonotary's office. If you are filing the forms to waive the cost, you will need one copy of each of those forms.

You are now ready to file all of the papers with the Prothonotary.

HOW TO FILE THE COMPLAINT AND PETITION

Take all of your completed forms (including the copies) to the Prothonotary's Office on the first floor of the Lycoming County Courthouse at 48 West Third Street, Williamsport, on any weekday (Monday through Friday) between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Separate the papers into the three groups shown below, and put them in the order shown below.

1. FIRST GROUP: (1) Order, (2) Order for Special Custody Relief and Hearing, (3) Entry of Appearance as Self-Represented Party, (4) Petition for Emergency or Special Custody Relief, (5) Completed Criminal/Abuse History Verification, and (6) Blank Criminal/Abuse History Verification, and (7) A copy of the Current Custody Order (if there is one).

You will need an original and at least two copies of all these forms.

2. SECOND GROUP: Confidential Information Form (2 pages if there are less than three children, 3 pages if there are three children or more).

3. THIRD GROUP: If you are asking to have the filing fee waived, you will need: (1) Order to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs, and (2) Petition to Proceed without Payment of Fees and Costs.

You will one copy of each of these forms.

THE NEXT STEPS

A staff member at the Prothonotary's Office will take all your documents to the Court Administrator's Office. Someone from the Court Administrator's Office will take your paperwork to a Judge to review. The Judge will decide whether the circumstances meet the "immediate clear and present danger" requirement of an emergency and whether a hearing will be held without the other party present.

If the Judge decides that an emergency hearing should NOT be held, an Order will be entered dismissing the Petition. In that case, you will not get an emergency custody order. However, you can still go through the regular channels to get a custody order or to try to change an existing custody order. This procedure is fully explained in the Self-Help packets available from Legal Services, Penn Tower, 25 West Third Street, Suite 400, Williamsport, PA 17701; at the Family Court Office at the courthouse; or online at www.lyco.org under the "Court Administration" tab.

If the Judge decides that an emergency hearing SHOULD be held, the Judge will sign an Order scheduling a hearing in front of a Family Court Hearing Officer. You will then be directed to the Family Court Office. The hearing is usually held on the same day your petition is filed.

The hearing will be ex parte, which means that the opposing party will not be present. You may bring anyone who has direct knowledge of the situation, and can testify about the circumstances of the emergency. You may bring the child or children who are in danger, but only if that would be helpful. At the hearing, the Family Court Hearing Officer will determine whether an Emergency Custody Order should be entered immediately, and what that Order will state.

The Family Court Hearing Officer will schedule a date for the second hearing. The Family Court Office will process the paperwork and will return all of the copies to you. The original documents will become part of the permanent Court record. You will receive two copies; one for yourself and one for the opposing party, whom you must serve. Bring your copy to the second hearing.

It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to serve the opposing party with a copy of all the paperwork. (If you have just filed a Complaint for Custody you will also need to serve that Complaint on the other party.)

If you are successful in receiving an Emergency Custody Order, the Order will be effective immediately, and you may go get the child(ren) or keep the child(ren) from the other party. However, the Order will only last until a second hearing is held, at which time the opposing party will be present. The second hearing will be held within ten business days, and will be conducted by a Judge. You will have the burden of proving to the Judge that an emergency exists. After listening to all of the testimony from you as well as the other party, the Judge will make a final determination.

HOW TO SERVE THE OTHER PARTY

It is not enough to simply talk to the other party about the custody action or the hearing date. You must give the other party notice that you have filed for custody. This kind of notice is described as “service.”

Ordinarily, you can serve a party by Certified Mail. However, since the hearing will be scheduled within ten days, you will not have time to do this. The best way to serve an Emergency Custody order is by personal service.

PERSONAL SERVICE:

You can have a person serve the papers as long as that person is 18 years of age or older, is not a party to the action, and is not an employee or relative of a party to the action. Therefore, if you are the person filing the petition, you should not serve the papers yourself, and you should not have anyone who is related to you or who works for you, serve the papers.

The person who serves the legal papers on the opposing party(ies) must do it in one of these ways:

- (a) by handing a copy to the other party; or
- (b) by handing a copy to an adult member of the family with whom the other party resides; or
- (c) by handing a copy of the papers to an adult person in charge of the residence at the time (example: babysitter, etc.); or
- (d) by going to the opposing party’s usual place of business and handing a copy to the opposing party’s agent (one that acts for or representative of) or to the person in charge.

IT IS IMPORTANT TO SERVE THE OTHER PARTY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

If you do not serve the other party in time for them to have reasonable notice and an opportunity to prepare for the hearing, the Court may dismiss the petition and end the Emergency Custody Order, or the court may schedule the hearing for a later date.

BY SHERIFF OR CONSTABLE: If you have the funds to do so, you can pay the Sheriff, Constable, or process server to serve the papers for you and to file an Affidavit of Service for you.

THIRTEENTH FORM: AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

This form is completed by someone else who serves the papers for you, and then you file it with the Prothonotary before the hearing.

- Fill in the caption.
- Fill in the blank spaces.
- Check the paragraph that best describes how the papers were served.
- Have the person who served the papers sign, date, and write his/her address and telephone number at the bottom.
- Make one copy and file at the Prothonotary’s Office before the conference. Keep a time-stamped copy for your records.
- Remember to fill out an Affidavit for each person who has been served.

BE SURE TO BRING A COPY WITH YOU TO THE HEARING
