

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF LYCOMING COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA : No. 03-10,050
:
:
vs. : CRIMINAL
: Application for
RICHARD WAYNE ILLES, SR., : Appointment of Defendant : Public Defender

O R D E R

AND NOW, this 31st day of March 2004, after hearing in the above-captioned matter, the Court GRANTS the Application for Appointment of the Public Defender based upon the sworn testimony of Defendant Richard Wayne Illes, Sr. that at this time he has no assets that could be used to hire counsel.

By Order of March 30, 2004, the Court GRANTED the Motion of Defense Counsel, George Lepley and Craig Miller to withdraw as counsel after the filing of post-sentence motions since the Defendant is no longer able to pay for their services.

If the Defendant should obtain additional assets that could be utilized to pay for counsel, he is obligated to report this information in writing to the Court. Lycoming County officials are authorized to investigate and obtain financial information pertaining to any financial assets held by the Defendant pursuant to the attached affidavit signed by the Defendant in his Application for the Appointment of a Public Defender.

By The Court,

Kenneth D. Brown, Judge

cc: Michael Dinges, Esquire (DA)
Kenneth Osokow, Esquire (ADA)
Roan Confer, Esquire (ADA)
George Lepley, Esquire
Craig Miller, Esquire
William Miele, Esquire (PD)
Eugene Yaw, Esquire
Work file
Gary Weber, Esquire (Lycoming Reporter)