ORDER

AND NOW, this ___ day of April 2007, upon consideration of Defendant Bernard Gordon’s preliminary objections, it is ORDERED and DIRECTED as follows:

The Court DENIES Defendant’s preliminary objections regarding paragraphs 22 (a), (b), (c), (d) and (f); however, Plaintiff will be limited to contamination on the property as the basis for these claims.

The Court also DENIES Defendant’s preliminary objection to paragraph 24(b). Defendant can obtain a break down of the fees and expenses claimed in paragraph 24(b) through discovery.

By The Court,

Kenneth D. Brown,
President Judge
