IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF LYCOMING COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE: RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORY OF GARTH D. EVERETT, ESQUIRE

REPORT AND RESOLUTIONS OF COMMITTEE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE ABOVE-NAMED COURT:

On the 21st day of February, 2023, the Honorable Nancy L. Butts, President Judge of the 29th Judicial District of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, appointed the undersigned Committee to prepare a Report and Resolutions memorializing the life of Garth D. Everett for submission to the court at a public ceremony on May 19, 2023 at 3:30 P.M.

Accordingly, your Committee respectfully submits the following Report and Resolutions:

1. The Honorable Garth D. Everett, a 12-year member of the Lycoming Law Association died on January 28, 2023 at the Gatehouse in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Born on January 28, 1954, Garth was the son of David and Maxine Everett.

2. Garth was a soldier, a lawyer, a legislator, a husband, a father, a grandfather and a friend. He was also an 18-year survivor of cancer. Very few can match or repeat those accomplishments in life. Garth Everett was a very unique person.

3. Garth was born and raised in Montoursville, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Montoursville High School in 1972 where he met his best friend and future wife, Sue Shultz. Garth graduated from Penn State with an ROTC Commission in the United States Air Force in 1976. At the time of his graduation, he married his high school sweetheart, Sue.

4. While in the United States Air Force, Garth and Sue became the parents of Megan and Corinne. During his time on active duty, Garth rose to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

5. Upon his retirement from the Air Force, Garth returned to Pennsylvania and enrolled in the Dickinson School of Law. He graduated in 2000 and was a class speaker at the graduation ceremony attended by former Governor Tom Ridge and Penn State Football Legend Joe Paterno.

6. As a lawyer, Garth's specialty became representing municipal clients. That background led to his interest in the legislative process and in 2006 Garth ran for the office of State Representative for the 84th District following his classmate, Brett Feese, who held the office previously. Garth served in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives from 2007 until 2020 when he retired from the legislature.

7. Upon his retirement, Garth and Sue spent more time with family and friends. They devoted a considerable amount of time to travelling around the United States as well as spending time at his beloved cabin on the Loyalsock in Plunketts Creek Township. During that time Garth did the grandfatherly things such as taking his grandson to guitar lessons and coaching his granddaughter in soccer.

8. Garth lived life to the fullest. His approach to life is described by Hunter S. Thompson as follows:

Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty and well-preserved body, but rather to skid in broadside in a cloud of smoke, thoroughly used up, totally worn out, and loudly proclaiming 'WOW What a Ride.'

There is no better description of Garth's philosophy of life and the way he lived it.

9. For all who knew Garth, the words "being Garthed" have a special and very profound meaning bringing back memories of long nights, intense discussions, and very slow mornings. Closely related and an integral part of "being Garthed" was Garth's invitation of "Let's have one more last beer."

10. As a soldier, a lawyer, a legislator, a husband, a father, a grandfather and a friend, our Law Association has suffered a loss, our community has suffered a loss, and our state has suffered a loss in the passing of Garth D. Everett.

11. Garth's motto in his own words was: "Higher, Faster, Harder."

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved, that we, the undersigned, joined by the Bar of Lycoming County, do recognize the passing of Garth D. Everett, Esquire, and recommend adopting the following resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED that in the passing of Garth D. Everett on January 28, 2023, there has been a loss to the Law Association of Lycoming County of an able and conscientious member who epitomizes the highest traditions of the legal profession, a loss to the community of a valued participant, a loss to his family of a devoted, kind and loving husband, father and grandfather and a sincere and caring man, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Court and this Bar do hereby extend to Garth's wife, Sue, his children and grandchildren, a deep and heartfelt expression of gratitude, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that these Resolutions be spread at length upon the minutes of the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming County and that copies be given to Garth's wife, his children and grandchildren.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Resolutions Committee
