COMMUNITY CORNER

The Pennsylvania Bar Association recently honored the Lycoming Law Association (LLA) with recognition for its contributions to the legal profession and community. A County Bar Recognition award was presented to the LLA for its work on the Law Day and High School Mock Trial Competitions, the annual Angel Tree Toy Drive, a Project Linus Collection and numerous grants made by the LLA Foundation last year, including a $20,000 grant to the local legal aid office. The award was presented by PBA representatives to Elizabeth White, LLA president and Michele Frey, LLA executive director. "The LLA is honored to receive this award. Much of the community service performed by the LLA benefits local children, particularly those who are receiving services from Children and Youth or are in the Court Appointed Special Advocates program," White said at the award ceremony. From left are Jay Silberblatt, Elizabeth White, Michele Frey and Andrea Pettine.
